Kids Path
Perinatal Hospice

Services for expectant parents and babies diagnosed before birth with a condition that is expected to be life-threatening at, or shortly after, birth.

Purpose

Kids Path, a specialized children’s program of Hospice and Palliative Care of Greensboro (HPCG), offers a support program to parents who are expecting a baby with a life-threatening condition.

We Serve Expectant Parents...

- Who have an unborn baby with a diagnosis of a life-threatening condition.
- Who desire comfort care for their baby.
- Are under the care of a physician. Perinatal hospice care is comfort and support and the program does not provide medical or skilled nursing care.
- Parents who live in the Greater Greensboro area.

Services Provided

- Assistance with the development of a specialized birth plan, such as addressing goals during pregnancy, delivery and the time following the baby’s birth.
- Supportive counseling for parents and siblings.
- Access to resources and referrals as needed.
- Assistance with the creation of memories and keepsakes.
- Plan of care for the baby at home if desired.

Financial

The Kids Path perinatal hospice program is supported by generous community donations. Home health care is reimbursed by some commercial insurance providers and Medicaid.
